

The Lantern Bunny

A Peaceful Pillow Story

Snuggle in, take a deep breath, and let the story begin.

Chapter 1 â The Meadow at Dusk

When the sun dipped low behind the silver hills, Pip the bunny reached up and lit his tiny lantern.

The flame flickered â once, twice â then settled into a warm golden glow. Pip smiled. It was time for his favourite walk.

Every evening, just before the stars woke up,
Pip carried his lantern through the meadow to say goodnight to every living thing he loved.

Chapter 2 â The Sleepy Beetles

First, Pip stopped at the old oak root, where three sleepy beetles were tucking themselves in for the night.

"Goodnight, beetles," Pip whispered.

The beetles waved their tiny legs.

"Goodnight, Pip. Thank you for the light," they said.

Pip felt warm all the way to his ears.
